

Do you get excited from the buzz and action around real estate deals? Then this is your chance. Effective immediately we are looking for a bright, talented, enthusiastic and energetic professional willing to step onto a steep learning curve to strengthen our acquisition team.

ACQUISITION ANALYST

You will be, jointly with the acquisition managers, responsible for the acquisition of assets for the funds/mandates we run on behalf of our clients. In this specific case you will be primarily involved in the acquisition of parking assets. Car parks are a niche asset class, difficult to get your hands on but difficult work pays off in strong personal growth.

Who are we looking for?

Somebody with....

- A BSc/MSc degree
- good knowledge of English (German would be a plus)
- strong analytical skills

And....

A high-performer, always looking to improve yourself and your work. Results matter more to you than process. You have a 'yes we can' mentality and are eager to learn. The team goes above the individual and achieving our goals together makes you tick. You wear your heart on your sleeve and like to work in an open environment. You make mistakes, learn from them and take responsibility for them.

What will you do?

You assist the acquisition department in the broadest sense from deal sourcing, investment analysis and the due diligence process to the actual closing of the acquisition.

Examples of activities:

- Deal sourcing through desktop search for investment propositions
- Making investment calculations
- Fundamental investment analyses
- Market research
- Drafting investment proposals
- Assisting in due diligence processes
